ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Acknowledgement is due to Paul Slessor for permission to publish his father's poems, as well as prose works by Kenneth Slessor quoted in the Explanatory Notes. Kenneth Slessor's papers are held in the National Library of Australia and the State Library of New South Wales. Thanks are due to these distinguished libraries for permission to cite material held in their possession, and thanks are owed to their staff for assistance shown on many occasions.

The editors wish to thank the many friends who provided information for the Explanatory Notes in different ways and on various occasions. Further thanks are due to staff of the Australian War Memorial Library and of the Alexander Library and the Reid Library, Western Australia. This work was greatly assisted by grants from the National Library of Australia (under their Harold White Fellowship Scheme) and the Division of Arts and Architecture, the University of Western Australia. The editors wish to give particular thanks to the secretarial staff of the Department of English at the University of Western Australia; to Alan Dodds for his computer assistance; to Barry Humphries for the loan of Slessor's personal copy of One Hundred Poems; and to previous Slessor scholars on whose work we have drawn.
